ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJ: E. M. Vero
Ex-wife of EICHMANN, Otto Adolf Alleged War Criminal.

Q: Interrogation to determine whereabouts of EICHMANN, Otto Adolf.

1. Upon receipt of attached SCI, dated 21 October 1946, to your Section, signed L. Gale Hoffman, Special Agent CIC, CIC: EICHMANN, Otto Adolf, Obersturmbannfuehrer, an investigation was initiated by this office.

2. E. M. Vero, born 5 April 1907 in Hodus near Budweis, now residing at Altenau, Fischerndorf 8, Bezirk Gmunden, Austria, was interrogated by this agent on 26 November 1946, and the following information was ascertained. SUBJECT claims to have been legally divorced from EICHMANN during March 1942. SUBJECT states that during April 1945, exact date unknown, EICHMANN came to Altenau to see her and their three children. SUBJECT claims that this was the last time that she has seen EICHMANN, and that she has not heard from him since. According to SUBJECT, EICHMANN upon leaving Altenau said that he was returning immediately to Prague, Czechoslovakia.

3. SUBJECT's sister Pauli, married, husband's name and their present whereabouts unknown, was living in Niedenburg, Germany in November 1945, informed Pauli, Vero that EICHMANN, Adolf had been shot by the Czechs in Prague.

4. Pauli further disclosed that EICHMANN's parents, as well as a half brother, EICHMANN, Friedrich, are now living in Linz, Austria, Dr. I.

5. According to a confidential informant, evaluated source "A", frequently reliable, information "B", possibly accurate it is rumored that EICHMANN had been hiding in the mountains near Linz since late as November 1945, at which time he was allegedly reported to have been killed in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Then, through his ability to speak a fluent Yiddish he went into hiding in various Jewish communities until mid 1946 eventually secured to Palestine.
It is believed he is unable to have come into contact with the "Yids" until the Yossel Shalom Leader, and now reported to have been in Palestine. It is ultimately rumored that EICHMANN is presently in Palestine under the protection of the Yids, Yosef Uziel, Leader.
Information further stated that a certain Mr. Dr. David Sperber is currently free in Freiburg, Germany, who is employed by the Government of the Republic of Austria, Austria, was released, first
